How to use this Chart:

- This chart is meant to be used with the Simple Oil Rule. You can always find the latest version of this rule at <http://capitalwif.wikidot.com/simple-oil-rule>
- Use a spare convoy marker to mark your fractional oil usage on this track. As you pay for actions, move your marker to the right. Every time you cycle past 9 and back to 0, you must remove an oil marker from the map.
- To track which oil depot is being drained, mark the depot with one of your major power's spare markers (we use the veto chits from Leaders-in-Flames). Every time you cycle back to 0, you may move this marker to a different oil depot if desired.
- If playing with the 'Isolated Units' optional, you should only track your main oil source on this track. Isolated oil depots will have to continue being marked with numbered markers as described in the rule.
